

UPDATE 11th May

Dear Parents and Carers,

Last night Boris Johnson talked about the phases of releasing the lockdown...

Potential return to school for Reception, Year 1 and Year 6 from 1st June

I am currently awaiting advice from the Department for Education.

I was only made aware of this information at the same time as yourselves last night and I will keep you informed of any plans as and when the guidance for the return is clear.

At the moment the advice is still the same (regarding school) and I am sure that we will find out more information on the changes this week and beyond in due course.

Many thanks for your support.

With prayers
